3. Letter No. 1. D No. F 2934/90/P & PW (B) dated
12-3-1990 of the Department of Pension and Pensioners
Welfare, Government of India.

ORDER

In the Government order read as second paper above, Government have ordered that the ex-servicemen who retired before 1-7-1987 and had been released at their own request after completing 5 or more years of service in the Armed forces of Union, after attestation, will continue to be treated as ex-servicemen and will be entitled to the benefits of reckoning their military service for calculating their qualifying service for civil pension. In the case of discharge at own request in respect of personnel below officer rank, it will not be equivalent to resignation and the military service rendered prior to such discharge can be reckoned as qualifying service for civil pension subject to the conditions laid down in the central civil service (pension) rules 1972.

2. In the letter read as third paper above, Government of India have clarified that discharge on one's own request from army service is not resignation and such service is reckonable towards subsequent civil service, subject to the refund of pensionary benefits, if any, received by him along with 6% simple interest on the same from the date of receipt till the date of refund.

3. Government have examined the matter in detail and in modification of the G. O. read as second paper above, they are pleased to order that the discharge on one's own request from army service is not resignation and that army service in such circumstances also is reckonable towards subsequent civil service subject to the conditions laid down in the rules in part III Kerala Service Rule's and subject to the refund of pensionary benefits, if any, received by him along with 6% simple interest on the same from the date of receipt till the date of refund.

4. Necessary amendment to the rules in part III KSR will be issued separately.
