

A.Reservation for Employment

(i)
(ii)

All Posts/Recruitments in the Department of Sainik Welfare (after 1-3-1
Civilian posts in the N.C.C. Department are reserved for Ex-Servicemen.

(iii)

10% of Vacancies for the post of Livestock Inspectors in the Animal Husbandry Department through

(iv)

The post of sergeants in Various Departments of the state are reserved for Ex-Servicemen.

(v)

10% of the vacancies are reserved to wives and children of Jawans for appointment as female wa

(vi)

10% of the vacancies to the post of Police Constable Drivers reserved to Ex-Servicemen (Condition

(viii)

Concessions are granted to Ex-Servicemen by the PSC for the Recruitment to the post of Excise In

Relaxation of educational qualification from degree S.S.L.C

Relaxation of physical standard for the post of Excise Inspector

Weightage is granted by the P.S.C. to Ex-Servicemen candidates according to their length of service.

Priority for sponsoring through Employment Exchanges.

If all other things are equal (Qualifications, Marks etc.) the Ex-Servicemen will be given preference.

If all other things are equal wives (Defence Personal) of Jawans are given preference to the post of

Aided Schools-protected teacher-redeployment-close relatives of Jawans will be permitted to continue

Preference is given to Ex-Servicemen for Direct Recruitment to the following Posts

Foresters and Forest Guards Grade-II in the Forest Department and Second Grade in the Wild Life

Amin in the Judicial Department.

Security Posts in the Home Guards.

Age Relaxation/Concession

Ex-Servicemen are given exemption from age bar.

State Government-Military service plus period of unemployment after discharge from the Armed